Gianna Fox

“I, Gianna Fox, being of sound, mind and body will the following:”

Emelia Metcalf: My stl girly. one of the best best friends I could ever ask for. My braid buddy, our after-halftime obsession with snacks, coffee dates, applebees, music buddy, rant buddy, griddy buddy (Is that emelia metcalf?), after game talks in natalie’s car and it getting all foggy, and overall a bright light in my life. If it wasn’t for you, Natalie, or Audrey I would’ve never done guard. You have shown me what it’s like to not be afraid and speak my mind. You’re the most amazing and beautiful person I have met. With the most contagious smile, the funniest laugh and the ability to make me laugh until I’m about to pass out. No one in my life has made me laugh more than you and your sense of humor gives me joy in my days. You are unique and definitely one of a kind and I could never express how much I love you. No matter what, you are always there for me and understand me. There will never be someone else like you in my life and I have no idea what I will do without you being by my side every second next year. You make so many people happy and give so many great laughs. You will be going so far in life with the kind of motivation and drive that you have. I am so proud of you emeals. I love you endlessly!

Natalie: Another stl bbg. Naz, Nazy, Nazalita. Since day one on that basketball court. Natalie I have so many things to say but don’t know how to put them all into words. You light up every place you go into with that beautiful smile that you have and those cutesy little dimples. You are so amazing and beautiful inside and out. You never fail to make people laugh and especially me. Possibly one of the funniest people I have ever met and one with the biggest heart. With all my stress and crying I have you are always by my side to make sure I’m ok. You always know the right thing to say and always show me the good side of things. You’re my reminder that even when life gets hard that there will always be something good ahead. Everyone needs a Natalie in their life, I know I do. You deserve the world. I love our game talks, hot chocolate, Taylor swift, applebees, after game talks in the foggy car, seeing you all the way down the hall at school and smiling at you, quesadillas, list obsessions, our rants, and our back of the bus shenanigans. You show love to everyone you meet and never fail to make people smile and happy. You work so hard to get where you need to be and I’m so proud of you and everything you have done. You constantly give 100% even when you’re ready to crash from being sick or sleepy. I will always be your biggest supporter naz because out of everything you do for me, I owe you so much. Thank you for being in mine and everyone else’s lives. I am so proud of you and I love you more than anything!!

Erin: Era- Era Erin. My other stl girly. Also since day one and C group. You’re always one to have the best hair and makeup. One of the strongest people I have met. You bring laughter with you wherever you go. I have never met someone with more stories than you and they are some of the most surprising stories I have ever heard. I will always miss our little gym clothes talks and what’s a good pair of leggings or a good pump cover. You are the most beautiful and most confident person I have ever met. One thing is that you are never afraid to stand up for yourself or speak your mind. You make me giggle so much and say some of the funniest things. I will always miss our C group days, our cottage days in beauty and the beast (oh my goodness), some applebees trips, parking lot shenanigans before or after almost everything. I never thought I could have so much fun in a parking lot. I am so proud of you for everything. You are going to do great things. I love you so so much!!

Jeremy: always giving 100% and you are such a good friend to so many people. You make people smile, laugh and you get along with people so well. Especially you and Emelia at band camp. How could I forget all your giggles you guys had and still have. No matter what you always find a way to cheer people up and just brighten their day.

Nevie: knows how to work so hard, loves horror movies, forgets water bottle when we need to bring our own water, loves music and Starbucks. You are always so dedicated to doing better every time and you never give up. Such an extremely kind person to everyone you meet and always knows how to make someone feel better. You have such a big heart and always know how to brighten the room with laughter.

Juliana: constantly giving 110%, has the biggest heart ever, amazing on rifle, so caring, kind, and beautiful inside and out. I am so proud of you for all that you have been accomplishing and I can't wait to see what your future holds for you. You are going to be going so many places and you have such a bright future. You bring so much light into my life and give me a new and different perspective on so many different things. You inspire so many people and you deserve the world. Seeing you constantly grow and improve every day makes me so happy for you and you never fail to impress me. Never change for anyone because you are perfect just the way you are. I will truly miss the bees with you, the choreography you and Atlas have for certain songs (specifically Teen Beach Movie), practices where you give me song requests, game days, and so many laughs. I will also never forget the night I made my senior speech and how we cried all night. That truly made me so happy. I genuinely wish you happiness, fun, laughter, and memories for you last year. It will go by in an instant. So seriously cry all the tears you need to when everything is your last time. You seem so passionate about guard. You'll see what I mean when the time comes that when everything is the last time you will want to cry. Cry those tears babe. I am going to miss you so much. Keep pushing forward and don't let fear stop you. I love you endlessly!!

Atlas: so hardworking, caring, hilarious, sweet, amazing bees trips, amazing on rifle too, always gives the best song requests for the bus and the best memories at practices and games. All I can say is that you are never afraid to be yourself and I love that about you. You have such an amazing personality and heart. You have always been there for me and I can't thank you enough. Thank you for being exactly who you are. Everyone needs an amazing friend like you. You are perfect just the way you are and I am so proud of you for everything you have accomplished. You never fail to impress me. You also have such a bright future ahead of you in guard and in life. Keep being the compassionate, sweet and loving person that you are. I can always count on you to make me laugh hysterically or brighten my day. I genuinely wish you the best last year in guard next year. I hope you get all the happiness, fun, laughter and memories next year. It will go by so fast so cherish every moment. I love you more than anything and I am so proud of you!

Kaylee: Oh Kus my little bbg. "My baby you're my babyyy". I can't express how much I am going to miss you. You are probably the funniest person I ever met. You always have these stories and jokes that make me smile until my face hurts. I love the bees trips, your cute little chicken nugget buns, your song requests, the stories you tell me about media class and so much more. You are the most compassionate person I have ever met. You never fail to make other people laugh or smile and you always check in on everyone. You are so amazing on rifle, you know how to work hard and not give up. You impress me every day Kus. I genuinely wish you the best, happiest, and most fun in your last year of guard next year. It will go by in an instant so cherish every single moment. I'm so proud of you Kus and I can't wait to see what next year and your future holds for you. I love you more than anything Kus!

Eli: always giving 110%, knows how to work so hard and speak up for yourself. You seem so dedicated when you are passionate about something. Keep that drive for your future because it will take you so many places. Any time you have a setback you always pick back up that flag and keep going. You are so encouraging and make people laugh and smile. I genuinely wish you the best, happiest and most fun in your last year of guard. You deserve it! I am going to miss you so much!

Samantha: Mantha. you always know how to work so hard and never give up, you always give 100%, make so many people laugh and smile. You have such a contagious smile and you make so many people happy with your personality. You never fail to make people laugh and you always check in on people. You are so amazing on silks and you never give up. You have seriously grown so much and you know more than anyone to never give up. Anytime you have a setback you never let it stop you and you keep pushing forward. I genuinely wish you the best, happiest, and most fun last year in guard. Make so many memories and cherish them forever. I am going to miss you so much!

Ava: you really never fail to make me laugh ever. Even over the smallest things it always makes me laugh. You really have improved since day 1 and I am so proud of you. You have such an amazing personality that can light up any room you walk into. You make me laugh when we are waiting to walk on the field or when we are watching someone perform. I give you all the happiness for your last two years because it will go by fast. Cherish every moment, have so many laughs and smiles too. Never change for anyone! I am going to miss you so much!

Bri: you have a gorgeous smile and you are never afraid to be yourself. you brighten people's lives and always check in on people. You constantly improve every single day and always give 100%. No matter where we are you always set a great example for others and you are a great future leader. You've improved so much on silks and I couldn't be more proud. Thanks for always making me smile and laugh and doing the same for others. Your kindness and compassion never goes unnoticed. I hope your next two years in guard are wonderful and you have the time of your life. It will go by fast so cherish every moment! I'll miss you so much!

Allie: I have always enjoyed your nickname that was given last year, ALLIE G! You picked up rifles so fast and you are such a quick learner. You honestly amaze me how quick you can pick things up and you have impressed me since day 1. You are constantly improving and you always give 100%. You have such a bright future in guard so keep working hard. I hope you have the best next two years in guard!

Carrie: amazing on rifle, constantly smiling, always making people laugh, and cares for so many people. I couldn't tell you how amazing you look on rifle. You are always improving and you work so hard to get to where you need to be. You have a bright future ahead in guard. Make memories that will last a lifetime and keep making so many people smile. I also always love the interesting snack ideas you sophomores come up with. Keep setting a great example for others like you always do. I hope your last two years are going to be the best!

Ashlyn: Oh Ash. Truly the best little sibling ever and my favorite person ever. I've never smiled more in my entire life. When I'm around you I am constantly laughing and smiling. You have the absolute best personality ever and being your big sibling was the best thing that has happened to me. You always have so much tea to tell me about everything. You have the biggest heart ever and care for everyone around you. You always make my day when I see you. I will miss our little shoulder bumps we always do when we are talking and giggling or our stares at each other from across the cafeteria. You seriously always know how to brighten a dull room. I am so proud of you for everything you have accomplished this year and all the pushing through that you did when things got hard. You never gave up and that set such a great example for others. Never change your beautiful self because you are absolutely perfect the way you are. I am going to miss you more than anything next year. I love you so so so much!! (maybe I'll babysit your little sisters)

Livi: Also the best little sibling ever and my favorite person ever! You have the biggest heart ever and the cutest smile. You have seriously impressed me since day one. You are so amazing on silks and such a great example for the others. You are the definition of never giving up. When you drop that flag or when things get hard you always pick it right back up and try again. You are constantly practicing and improving every day. Talking to you always makes my day so much better and I love our talks and shenanigans that we have had at the band festivals. My favorite was probably the Bethel Park band festival with you when you sat behind me with Gabby, Gracie, and Ryleigh and I took pictures of you guys making funny faces. You never fail to brighten my days or make other people feel better. Never change for anyone because you are perfect just the way you are. I am so happy that I am your big sibling. I love you endlessly!!

Ryleigh: Oh goodness what do I say. Truly the funniest person ever, my buddy in el Cumbanchero where you gripped my shirts and ruined them, the smirks I give you and Gabby and you do them back, the goofiest person I have ever met, can't sit still when I put your PT in and so much more. I also heard that you put your feet out the window when someone is driving you somewhere. You make me laugh until I can't breathe and you make me smile so much. I like when you mess with Ms. S and she is over there giggling too. Still will never forget how you possibly put that dent in her car. Anyways, you really have improved since the beginning of the year and I am so proud of you. Your tosses look amazing now and you are constantly getting better. I will miss you so much next year Rye!

Gracie: the sweetest person in the world, has the best style ever, stunning, great on silks, always gives 110% and never gives up. You are the sweetest and most compassionate person I have ever met. You make me smile and feel better when I'm down and I always appreciate that so much. Every day you always check in on people and you always tell me I'm doing such a good job and it makes my day. I constantly obsess over the mistakes I make but you make me forget all about them and tell me it's ok or that i'm doing a good job. You are such an amazing friend to so many people. I am so proud of you for everything this year. You pushed when things were hard and you stood up for yourself when you had to. You are such a strong person and never forget that. I can already tell you have such a bright future and you will go so far. You have truly have had such a big impact on my year and made it so much better. I will miss you so much next year. Cherish the last three years you will have because they will go fast! I love you endlessly!

K: You have the most amazing personality and have the best laugh. I have laughed this year so much because of you. My favorite thing that you always say to me is: "I LOVE YOU PLATONICALLY". It's always my favorite. Also you're amazing at your job at hundred acre manor. You kept your spirits up this year too when things got you down or you couldn't perform and I am so proud of you for that because it's not easy to go though. Thank you for everything you have done this year. Everything you do ever goes unnoticed. Thank you for being exactly who you are and making me laugh and smile constantly. You always put your best foot forward and put so much effort into everything. Keep pushing forward and even when things get hard and don't let fear stop you. I will miss you so much next year!

Gabby: Oh Gab. My cute little Gabby. You know Gabby, you look really cute when you run. Also when you do the smirk you are so cute. I also still don't get how you got through band camp and practices all year with your hair down. Truly a trooper. You are always smiling and laughing Gabby and you and Ryleigh are really something. You guys honestly have the best friendship I have ever seen. Seeing you come out of your shell a little bit this year was so cute. You can thank Rye for that too because you guys during camp was a sight to see. Locking yourselves out of your room, tripping each other, the loud music you played, the loud laughing, laughing at each other when one of you got hurt and so much more. Ryleigh truly brings out the goofy side of you Gab. Thank you for all the laughs and smiles you have given me this year Gabster. I will miss seeing the shenanigans you and Ryleigh pull. Don't get in too much trouble. I will miss you so much next year! I love you so much Gabster!

Nancy: You always know how to make others laugh and you get along so well with other people. Also love the fact that you switched from band to color guard. I hope you like color guard more. Thank you for being so kind and having the biggest heart. You have improved since the beginning of the year and I am very proud of you. Keep pushing when things get hard and never change. I can't wait to see all that you accomplish in the future! I will miss you so much next year! I hope your last couple years are so amazing and you have so much fun!

To the whole color guard: Oh goodness. I actually can't believe this is over and it's crazy to think about. I couldn't tell you guys how much this has changed my life. I came into this being so shy, quiet and scared to meet so many new people. Now I have made so many friends that I now call my best friends. Cherish every single moment and cry if you have to. I know I did. I can barely talk to you all when something is the last time without crying. I couldn't have made it this far without you all. I couldn't have grown without you all. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything you have done for me. This has been a big life lesson of growth and what dedication can bring you. The friends you meet and the years you go through will change you. If I had one thing to tell you all it would be to not be afraid. Let everything run its course and work itself out. Everything will work out in your favor and if it doesn't then get back up and keep going. Thank you all for changing my life. I cry everytime i think about leaving you guys. Thank you guys for being my second family. I would never want this to end if I got the chance to change the way life works. In my heart I can never move on from this or ever forget about it. I can't find anymore words to express my gratitude or feelings but just know I have so many things to say but no way to put them. I love you guys so much, more than anything.

To all the other seniors in band: I wish you all the best of luck in the future! Thank you for everything and making these 4 years so much fun! I'll miss you all!

I, Carl Anthony Luisi IV, being of body and sound and mind, here do by will the following:

Lily- I will you the power to do anything. With this gift you will be able to do whatever makes you content in life. I will you my marching bari, Tiffany, in hopes that you will continue to foster the legacy of the bari sax. The blood bond runs deep through each pad, each screw, and every note played. Use it well. I also will you my half of the trailer, even though we both know, it was all yours anyway. Now go forth into the world and spread love and joy like you always have.

Gabriella- I will you the essence of "life of the party". Use this to keep the spirit of marching band alive. I also will you my blue circular sunglasses. I will you a non-dented mellophone to play. I also will you a time machine, so when I make you late for school, you can get there on time. You may also use the time machine to take you back to the "good ole days" if you wish. But remember, you can't stay in the past forever, one day you must move forward and enact the destiny that you are promised. Use these items well.

Juliana (AKA: Cosa)- I will you a thousand throat chops, knee-kick-ins, and water droplet noises. I also will you as much ohana lemonade as you can drink and as many bowls of eat n' park soup that you can eat. I will you the Room 100 flag to keep the spirit of Room 100 bright and flying high (I find this appropriate, as you are in colorguard). Lastly, I leave you with Taylor Swift tickets, with backstage pass, and a nice dinner with Taylor (you may bring one other person) use these items well.

To Low Brass- I will you another rubber chicken and a massive bell that you can ring every time you enter the trailer.

Max Sunderland- I will you the daycare that we used to go to, the three stooges noise, the "my bad" joke, and all the "Max Sunderland" dances in the world.

Alex Cada- A singular red ballon

Maddie Sirinek- A bajilion knee-kick-ins, a field hockey stick, and sweatpants.

Molly- A rubber chicken with its voice box still in it

Garrett Thomas- I will you a toilet to mount to your snare harness

Nevie Mallich

“I, Nevie Mallich, being of sound mind and body hereby will the following...

To the freshman: I leave the passion and dedication to carry on the band’s legacy, and the ability to make you guys feel welcome

To the section leaders: I leave gratitude for their guidance, and the responsibility to lead with enthusiasm

To the drumline: I leave the rhythm, urging you guys to keep the beat very strong and entertaining

To the colorguard: I leave the grace and artistry, inspiring you guys to continue mesmerizing the audience

Olivia K: I leave lots of Starbucks, lots of Starbucks gift cards, lots of Pink Drinks, and incredible dancing skills

Juliana: I leave incredible rifle skills

Ryleigh K: I leave the ability to make everybody on the Colorguard laugh

Lily G: I leave amazing and incredible saxophone skills

Atlas: I leave lots and lots of chocolate, and amazing, incredible acting skills

Ms. S: I leave wonderful and amazing coaching skills

To the rookies: I leave the ability to make you feel welcome, and the best next 4 or 3 years of marching band

Vanessa Marcanio

Sam - A door that locks when it's supposed to, endless pairs of grandma shoes, a wardrobe of bright neon pink clothes because I know how much you love that color, a bag of graham crackers that have witnessed too much, the forbidden framed picture that's been lost to time, a bright green light that flashes in your eyes every night when you're trying to sleep, a huge tank of pink friday air to live in, pink friday mouthwash, an ice cold bottle of zincy zincy drink, a 4 digit SAT score, the ability to parallel park, a midnight rendezvous with Deer Man, a box of ligature screws for when the curse comes back, a juicy Seneca Valley apple, a fortune cookie covered in ranch, DTK, and #5 to cure your reason #16

Ethan - A cookbook of lactose free recipes so no one has to endure reason #3

Ashley - A huge field of sunflowers and the most happiness humanly possible in your next 3 years in band

Stella - Tons of fun with the Clarients and the best of luck wherever life takes you

Madison - A Walgreens bag full of Portuguese candy to remind you of home

Robbie - Better observational skills and a basket of Texas Roadhouse buns with only 3 in there instead of 4 because of that time you took the last one and it was supposed to be mine

Natalie - A nice tall glass of lime coke and some mac and cheese bites

Jake - A dictionary

Scarlett - A fresh batch of cookies because that's like the best thing in the world and I think you're amazing

Erin - A printed copy of Ben and Jerry's Great Race of Work and Power

Ryleigh - All the unicorn magic in the world, a giant tub of pink glittery frosting, and an endless mess of hot glue and rhinestones on everything

Madison Peraza

Sam- I leave you with the ability to see Robbie drink milk during lunch.

Audrey- I leave you the ability to choose a better pair of shoes to run onto the field with

Cody- I leave you my prized symbolic section leader title and a better taste in photos

Rocco- I leave you with the hope that the Marvel cinematic universe becomes somewhat watchable again and the best of luck being one of potentially two alto saxes next year.

Ashley- I leave you with the best remaining three years of marching band. I hope you enjoy every second that you are a part of this marching band. You are already an amazing musician and marcher and I hope you too will get to pass down the bandana in 3 years.

Lily- I leave you every single Steeros beer chant next year and I hope can you help lead the saxophone section.

Joe- I leave you with the ability for your hands to not become frozen after only spending a minute outside in slightly cold weather. I wish you the best Joe Feitt, you're a good person. (P.S. I think you're Robbie's favorite)

Aaron- I leave you the best of luck for your remaining years of marching band. Please try to take care of Joe and make sure he doesn't freeze.

Owen- I leave you with endless amounts of flashing lights.

To the rest of the younger band members- I leave with you good luck inside and outside of the marching band. I hope you enjoy marching band and high school. I hope you all carry on our traditions. Remember, you will soon be writing these senior wills yourself, so make sure to make every moment memorable and positive.

To my fellow seniors- I want to thank you all for giving me the most memorable four years of my life. You were always being there for me and I could not be happier with how our friendships grew over the four years. It is because of you that I was able to enjoy band so much and I wish you all the best of luck in college or whatever else you may do after graduating.

Scarlett Tedeschi

Silas - i will to you, the blood mallet, baggy baggy baggy baggy baggy jeans, the phrase “dtf?”, more interesting art conversations, unlimited gold in collect all pets, (when finished) the drawing of all of the Gallaghers, the cup guy we made in art, unlimited hair dye, and enough money to buy an album!

Alana - i will to you, as many Welch’s you can possibly eat, a private marching band role play server, my dad (jungkook), more lunch periods together when I skip geoscience, beating the FNAF games, a successful rapping/beatboxing career, Edward Cullen, more trips to the mall, and a happy sims family!

Ally - i will to you, a non-faulty vibraphone petal, more posters to put in the orchestra room, the megalovania remix, a behind as round as #67’s, more unique roblox avatar creations, a pack of 20 lip balms, and more blanket huddles when it gets cold!

JAYDA -I will to you, Jayda Michelle Tedeschi, Ash and CC after I leave for college!

Eric Tsou - a normal art class without overhearing our weird conversations (except you’re not gonna get that), and a great junior year!

Nex- unlimited pop-it toys and more welches! Also a really great junior year!

Brielle - the weird build a bear Jayda has, and a great junior year!

Lily Goldbach - thank you so much for always being super helpful to the front ensemble and a super sweet person! I Truly appreciate everything you do. Good luck senior year, i know you will do great things!

Jonathan Bodnar - I will you a good year of band next year, whether it’s a manager or a member of drum line! I’ll trade you my pizza crust for an extra pack of Welch’s. Thanks for everything you did helping the front ensemble!

Entire front ensemble - you guys made band so much fun and I’m so glad I met you guys through it. Band had its tough times, but being with you guys made it all worth it. Making our twilight scenes, doing acrobats, taking really awesome photo shoots, and even making weird Welch’s boba concoctions. Those were some of the most meaningful memories ever, to me! I can’t imagine what life would be like if we hadn’t met, and I know you guys will go on to do great things. Wishing you guys bags and sleeves full of after half time snacks. Love you guys, always. Have a great senior year and keep being slightly above average!

Carson Throckmorton

We regret to inform you that Carson T. Throckmorton has passed away and has been sent to the glue factory. He hereby wills the following...

Tenors

Nathaniel - Uhhhhhhhh I forget

“Thank you for learning the music faster than Steele and making my job a little easier. I appreciate your addition to the drumline. Long live Grunge!”

Steele- Spoiler for the truck

“I never got to know you that well in past years, but this year it has been wonderful to have you in my section. You’re a very fun pal and always made things fun. Actually learn the show music next year pls.”

Snares

Garrett- A meter stick

“Thank you sooooo much for babysitting the snare drums. I genuinely would have quit if I had to do that. Good luck next year, I hope the drumline doesn’t fall apart next year. You should probably be a drum major for your own sanity.”

Emmett- Guacamole (Preferably Green)

“Just like Sawyer, you’re just a genuinely nice dude. Even though you’re a itty bitty freshman I love to be around you to hear your stories. Have a wonderful couple of years in the drumline, I’ll be stalking you and watching you improve. Make me proud”

Grady- New sticks

“I didn’t spend as much time around you because I tried to avoid snare drums as much as possible, but I noticed that you put in a lot of effort into your musicianship. I am happy that you have found passion in drumming and I hope to see you grow in the following years.”

Anderson- Cymbal Section Leader

“Like Grady, you show a great passion for drumming, however it seems more like an obsession. Every time you talked to me I could feel my skin boiling but at least you practice. But for the love of God practice your own instrument and not only tenors. Have a good drumline career.”

Alex- Flub Drum Section leader

“You genuinely would be a wonderful candidate for the flub line. Except then you would have to learn the music and not look at Garrett and you’d have to learn drill without watching him too. And you’d have to... nevermind stick to snare. We don’t need flubs.”

Connor- A fresh cut

“I am willing to bet $75 that you have not practiced anything at home in the last year. You always have funny remarks to make. I love your quick witted humour, but I will spend the rest of my time at this high school critiquing your playing and practicing.”

Basses

Grant- A four leaf clover

“I admire your willingness to deal with those pesky 8th graders. You have been a great addition to the drumline, both because of skill and because of your overall vibe. Good luck in future years and consider learning a new drum to escape the young ones.”

Wyatt- Membership in the Wyatt Skillings Band

“You’re just an all around likeable person, you never caused me a single problem and you have always been a great addition to the band. You’re one of the only people that genuinely knew what they were doing all the time, and I enjoy your company. Have a great time at WVU, say hi to Sawyer, Kat, and Theo for me.”

Mackenzie- Snorlax Plushie

“You were a very chaotic addition to the drumline. You were always committing tomfoolery and shenanigans. Perhaps even dilly dallying! At least you made things interesting. Try not to steal Emmett so much, I love him too. Remember me as your senior sibling when you’re a senior.”

Cami- PANCAKE

“I appreciate that you learned the music and weren’t a total nuisance to Grant and Wyatt. You were pretty quiet and did not cause problems, but I hope to see you come out of your shell and beat that drum head louder. Have a good band career. Remember me as your senior sibling when you’re a senior too.”

Jackson- Restraining order on Mac

“I give you the award for the second most chaotic addition to the drumline. You were always out there dilly dallying (not shenanigans though). Have fun with all of your future lunacy and high jinks.”

Front Ensemble

Ally- Goo Gone

“The front ensemble has been sounding good this year. Good work with them. They even stay in time. I enjoy your company and hope that you are able to unglue yourself from Pookie for a bit. He deserves my love too.

Scarlett- A slinky or something I don’t remember what Ally said that one day on the bus

“You seemed to be the babysitter of the crazy front ensemble. I never spent much time around all of you but I could tell that you are a very nice person and a good addition to the front ensemble team. Have a good senior year and college experience.”

Landi- Thing One and Two outfits

“I am ashamed to admit that it still takes me a couple seconds to remember which one of you is which. That’s my b. Thanks for being a good front ensemble, you were both needed to make it a valid section this year. Hopefully you get some rookies next year. Good luck!”

Irrelevant Sections

Ethan- A clear plastic bag in the gym hallway and a trombone

“You’re a very genuine guy. Very nice, very funny, and very handsome. Stop trying to be like me. Anyways, I love your company and I admire your musical passion and abilities. I hope you have success in your musical future and I hope to be good pals with you. I can’t wait for our future shenanigans.”

Zennik- A block of mass m on a frictionless surface

“You always give me the giggles. I love our philosophical discussions in Western Civ and I appreciate you attempting to teach me integrals. I hope we can be good pals and I will enjoy hearing your stories for the rest of the year even though half of them are probably lies.”

Olivia- Half Custody

“He’s mine too. I think it’s so cool that we have a junior drum major. Very well done. I hope you have a great rest of your marching band career. You’re welcome for Waffle House.”

Tommy- F Attachment

“I feel so bad for the poor trombones, they’re going extinct and they’re my favorite. Good job at playing loud and representing low brass. If I could’ve gone back I would’ve played brass sooner, drumline overrated smh.”

Matt- Altissimo Range

“You are a very ambitious player. I remember how excited you were to join jazz band last year and you’ve played a very prominent role in sax supremacy. Now you guys have a massive section. Sucks that a ton of you are graduating. Oh well. It was cool while it lasted.”

Ryan and Molly- A bigger section

“I love the trombone, so I hope you two can carry on the legacy once Tommy graduates. Play loud and proud.”

Lily- An organized trailer

“You’ve been a very good addition to the band. You’ve helped out so much with the trailer and made things run very smoothly. Your musicianship has improved a lot in the last couple years from when I first met you in the pit orchestra to now. Keep up the good work.”

Bobby- A singular jazz band solo

“It’s been nice playing trumpet with you in the jazz band. I am so jealous of your ability to play high notes. You genuinely impress me with your abilities. You have earned your spot as the second best Mitchell, nobody can beat Jack’s prodigious playing ability.”

Jack- Treble clef music for baritone

“You are an interesting addition to the band. It’s always fun to hear what kind of riff raff you are up to. Please just learn to buzz your lips correctly. It sounds like a dying walrus back there.”

Owen- trumpet in jazz band

“You’re a very good player. I also think it’s cool to have someone that can play piano too, I enjoyed listening to you play in between school and band. Keep up the good work. Also pls join jazz band for real we need you.”

Jacob- also trumpet in jazz band (we realllllly need you guys)

“I still don’t understand why you call me Cameron. Probably because I kept calling you Nick but that is not my fault I’m bad with names.

Dom- A bigger section

“Low brass is suffering, I wish I could’ve helped. My bad I’m dead. Please play louder, we need more tuba!!!”

Color Guard- Acknowledgement

“You all never cause problems for me so thanks. I’m sorry for deafening you with our drums in the stands.”

Matty G- Trombone chops

“Keep up the passion for playing. I hope you practice a lot and improve your skills. I hope I can help you learn the trombone. But I will only help if you center your mouthpiece. That still infuriates me.”

*Joe Feitt-*Lots of milk

“Good judgement leaving bass drums. They’re WILD.”

Father Throck- Less rambunctious drumline

“They’re yours now.”

Mr. Young- A wet handshake (You’ll see)

“I was worried when Mr. B left, but you’ve made my senior year greater than I imagined. Thanks for all the opportunities this year in marching band, in-school bands, and PMEA. I can’t wait to see how you transform the music department in the future. Good luck!”

Ethan White

I, Ethan White, of prestigious body and mind, do hereby revoke all previous codicils and will the following:

Firstly, to my beloved clarinets:

Ashley, I give you all my hope for the future. Do great things!

Stella, I give you even more clarinet-themed clothing

Sam, I give you a lifetime supply of cork grease. And a vial of rat poison

Vanessa, my fellow senior, I give you a gallon of pink Friday perfume and clarinet repair kit.

And to Grace, I give a bag of running snacks

To the flutes:

Gracie, I give you an apple. Good luck on the rest of your marching journey.

Nex, I dub thee official booty drop teacher for the rest of your years

Natalie, I give you a pair of protection IV boots

Sylvia, I give you a pair of giant bird wings so that you may continue to fly

*note that for the rest of the sections I may not have everyone included. This is because I am callous and uncaring.

To the lovely saxes:

Nothing, there are no lovely saxes

To the rest of the saxes:

Cody, I give you a 12TB hard drive. Do what you wish.

Rocco, I give you a little monkey that perched on your shoulder. I don't really know why, it just feels right.

Little Esselstyn, I give you a pair of Zennik's socks

Joe, I give you a bottle of skin lotion and a blood-stained chainsaw to match that crazed look in your eyes

Logan, I give you another awesome graphic tee. And a sax solo.

Madison, I give you a glass of milk

Robbie, I give you a voucher for one free shoulder surgery on your other arm. See me if you want to redeem it.

Russell, I give you permission to grab a slice

Lily, I give you a functioning instrument and a bundle of roses

Anthony, my dearest Anthony, I give you the moon and all the stars, the sun and the morning dew, the breeze and the life it brings, and a vial of my blood.

Matt, I give you permission to sing in Ms. Liptak's room, a sandwich, a live gibbon, and a vial of my blood.

To the trumpets:

Firstly, a free horn angle lesson to those who need it. You know who you are.

Bobby, I give you a nightlight

Jack, I give you a restraining order. And a blue Powerade.

Max, I give you my blessing to marry Tyler

Cada (Alex), I sentence you to 10 years in jail for being despicable and unruly

Gavin, I give you a baggeball to play with Mr. Elders

Jake, I give you permission to hug me. Don't abuse it.

Owen, I give you my unyielding support throughout life. Also give your cousin my phone number

To the mellophones:

One whopper. You can share it.

To the low brass section:

Eric, I will give you my kidney if you ever need it. You are so cool.

Ryan, I give you a drag racing helmet to go with your trombone noises

Simon, I give you a lock of Hunter's hair

Matty G, I give you a Wendy's chicken sandwich

Tommy, I give you a plow so you can work the top field

Dom, I give you the best high five and handshake you've ever had

Low brass, I wish we talked more.

To the front ensemble:

Scarlett, I give you a big helium balloon

Both Landis', I give you each a bat to hit Ally with.

Ally, I give you armor to defend yourself with

To the drum line:

Emmett, I give you my love. And Grendel's arm.

Anderson, I give you $5. Go get yourself something nice.

Mac, I give you a live rat

Steele, I give you a steel ball bearing and several glass jars filled with colored liquid.

Connor, I give you gummy bears from Germany

Garrett, I challenge you to another wrestling match.

Grant, I give you a lot of Monopoly money

Wyatt, I give you my rubber duck collection, should I pass unexpectedly.

Carson, my beloved, I give you my heart and my word that I will always love you. Also I give you my hair and facial features so that we become indistinguishable.

To the rest of drum line:

A stick of deodorant. To share..

To the color guard:

I am burying a hidden treasure somewhere. I will be leaving clues behind. Whoever gets to it first will win it. Be wary of who you trust.

Also Jeremy I love you

And last but not least, to the drum majors:

Olivia, I leave you a Nickleback CD. You freak.

Zennik, I leave you all my earthly possessions (except my rubber ducks), should I perish or go missing. I also leave you a kleines Bierchen, a cracked phone Screen, all my plastic straw wrappers, and a vial of my blood

To anyone I didn't explicitly list here, I want you to know you have made the marching band a better place just by being here. Stay by your friends, stay in band, keep doing things you like doing.

And a special note to Zennik, Matt, and Anthony, you three are collectively my rock. I don't know what I'd do without the three of you. It's hard to believe this will be the end of our fifth year together in band. It wasn't always glamorous but I wouldn't trade it for anything. I love you guys. Make sure you all keep those vials of my blood that was hard to do.

Robbie Williams

Clarinets

Sam- I leave you a wave back everyday in band class

Ashley- I leave the duty of being the favorite clarinet disney princess. This was left to me 2 years ago and now I pass this on to you.

Stella- A long lasting phone battery

Saxophones

Aaron- I leave you a bar of soap. I trust you to put this to good use. Especially at band camp

Joe- Joe I will leave you balance. Both figuratively and literally.

Cody- I leave you many high quality photos to add to your collection

Audrey- I leave you many good memories at band

Lily- A clean trailer and unlimited help from anyone you ask

Rocko- I leave you good luck and many amazing years in band

Flutes

I leave all of you unlimited piccolos

Russell Willison

I, Russell Willison, of the PT Marching Band, do hereby declare this to be one of my last high school wills and testaments.

All the Woodwinds: Have a great season next year!!!!

To Joe Feitt: I will miss you buddy, stick to Tenor for me!!!!

To Aaron Esselstyn: Hope you had a great rookie year. Stick to marching band!!!!

To Rocko Harris: Hope your rookie year was great. I loved the kickline during the game.

To the Trumpets: You guys sounded great this year!!!!

To Jack Mitchell: You're hilarious don't change man.

To Maxim Sunderland: Have a great senior year man!!!

To Jake and Owen: Great job carrying the trumpets!!

To My Boy Jonathan Bodnar: I loved getting to know you and I hope that the drumline is fun next year and stick with the marching band. Love you!!!

Natalie Zukowski

I, Natalie Adele Zukowski, being of sound mind, body, and spirit, do will . . .

Color Guard - I am so proud of all of you. This year has been so fun and memorable, and I will carry it with me for the rest of my life. Thank you all for making my last year here so special. I am so thankful for the extra time the football team has given us by winning because we got to spend so much more time together than we would have in the regular season. To the freshmen, I'm so happy I got to meet all of you this year. You guys are very special :) To the sophomores, I love you all and I'm thankful for our time together! To the juniors, I love you guys so much and each one of you will be amazing leaders next year. Seriously, I cannot wait to see all you do for this team. And lastly to my seniors, my girls who have been with me since the trenches of STL, I love you guys so much and couldn't ask for better friends to experience this with. You guys have known me through every phase of my life and I am so proud of all we have been through. I can't believe we are already here, it feels like we were just walking into kindergarten and now we are all grown up :) Thank you for all the terrific memories I will cherish forever. Color Guard, I am SO excited to see what you'll do next year! I hope you continue to love this activity as much as I do :) Love you all.
